Spike your hunger

Before or after the match, you can spike your hunger with dinner or snacks at Barry's Bar & Grill. Pass the time by digging up the highlights of the Husker match.

Our kitchen is open until 10 p.m. and if the match runs long (doesn't happen often, does it?), we have specialty items until midnight.

Celebrate the Huskers' victory with us — we'll set you up to spike your hunger and slam your thirst.

9th & Q, Lincoln, Neb.

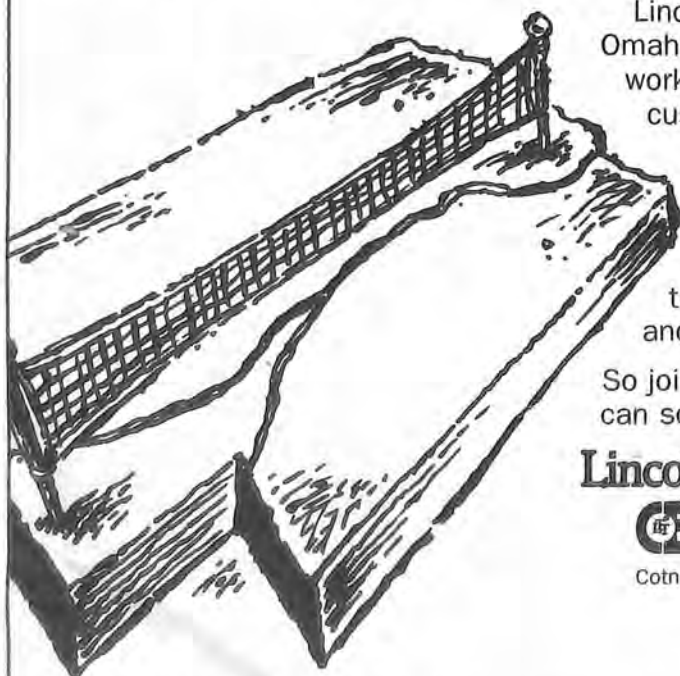

Open 11 a.m. to 1 a.m.
Grill open and hot 11 a.m. to 10 p.m.

Lunch specials 11 a.m. to 2 p.m.
Happy hours 4:30-6:30 p.m. M-F

Do you ever wonder why so many names that used to end in "y" now end with "i" — like Becki or Terri or Cindi. Those people must have played the car game on vacations where you spell your name from letters on billboards. There just weren't enough signs with "y" on them to ever win. Meanwhile, the poor Janes and Jennifers patiently wait for highway junction signs. Maybe that's why road-kill bingo and electronic games replaced the old-fashioned time-fillers.

The team with the best "network" wins.

Lincoln Telephone Cellular and First Cellular Omaha have teamed up to form a continuous network between Lincoln and Omaha. This gives our customers the convenience of non-stop coverage, without annoying service interruptions.

Plus, our interconnection with Nebraska Cellular and Cellular 29 Plus gives you the advantage of continuous coverage when traveling along Interstate 80 across Nebraska and Interstate 29 in southwest Iowa.

So join our team today. With teamwork like this, you can score from just about anywhere.

HEAD COACH TERRY PETTIT

One of the winningest coaches in the history of collegiate volleyball, Terry Pettit has held the reigns of the Husker program for 18 years. In those 18 seasons, Pettit has guided Nebraska to 16 Big Eight Championships, two national final games, and three national semifinals. During the past 12 seasons and continuing into 1994, Nebraska has maintained 149 consecutive weeks of American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) Top 20 rankings. Pettit was honored by the AVCA as the Midwest Regional Coach-of-the-Year in 1986, 1988 and 1989 and was voted the National Coach-of-the-Year in 1986 after guiding the Huskers to a runner-up finish at the NCAA Championships. Under his tutelage, 21 All-Americans, three U.S. National team players, a Honda-Broderick Award winner, three Big Eight Conference Female Athletes-of-the-Year, seven Big Eight Volleyball Players-of-the-Year and 68 All-Big Eight performers have graced the Lincoln campus.

THIS WEEK'S FEATURE
JEN MCFADDEN

Coach Terry Pettit says that when the Huskers get middle blocker Jen McFadden the ball, things happen.

"We tend to bust things open when she dominates a match," said Pettit. "She plays with a lot of enthusiasm and has the potential to be one of the best players in the country."

McFadden proved her coach right as she was named the Most Valuable Player at the Tiger Classic last week in Baton Rouge, La., after collecting 28 kills, only four errors and hitting .533. When her teammates weren't getting her the ball, she was busy stuffing it back in the opponent's face. Showcasing the skills that made her the Big Eight Conference blocking queen in 1993, the 6-2 sophomore from Dubuque, Iowa, gathered five solo blocks and 13 block assists over the weekend. Overall she leads the team with 1.25 blocks per game.

The outgoing McFadden grew up in a family of three brothers. Jeff, 23, Mike, 17 and Matt, 16, have always been supportive of her volleyball ability.

"My oldest brother has all these clippings of me in his dorm room and my other brothers have pictures of me playing hanging up. It's cool," she claimed.

McFadden has aspirations of someday joining the U.S. National team.

"Ever since I discovered I could play Division I volleyball, the National Team goal came into sight," said McFadden.

Regardless of what her future holds, for now, she's as good as it gets.

HUSKERS GO FOR FOURTH STRAIGHT TOURNAMENT TITLE IN ARBY'S CLASSIC

Last weekend the Nebraska volleyball team marched into Baton Rouge, La., like the Saints of nearby New Orleans, and promptly captured its third tournament title of the season with relatively easy wins over Texas Tech, Maryland and the host Louisiana State Tigers.

With the southern sunshine of Cajun Country now a distant memory, the Huskers turn their attention to the Arby's Classic this weekend at the Nebraska Coliseum. Nebraska will try to keep the shine on a perfect record, while attempting to add one more piece of hardware to its trophy case as it goes for a fourth tournament victory against Pittsburgh and New Mexico. Fellow Big Eight Conference member Kansas will also be in Lincoln for the competition, but the Huskers and the Jayhawks will wait until later this season to do battle.

NEW MEXICO

New Mexico, the perennial powerhouse of the Western Athletic Conference, will do everything possible to darken the Huskers' hopes of championship honors. Saturday's premier matchup of Top 20 teams will be only the third meeting between No. 2 Nebraska and No. 18 New Mexico. The Lobos won both previous meetings, including the Huskers' 1992 season opener and a 1991 confrontation in the BYU/Mizuno Invitational. Like Nebraska, Head Coach Laurel Brassey-Iverson's Lobos return five starters from a 18-11 team last season that advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. Brassey-Iverson, who has an overall record of 179-99, is in her 10th year at New Mexico. Last weekend she guided the Lobos to wins over Baylor and Santa Clara to claim the Jones Intercable Classic and up their record to 7-1.

Look out for attacker Tania Gooley, who had a team-high 20 kills and 19 digs in one of the wins over Baylor. Mindy Hale is another of the Lobos' loaded weapons as she collected double-figure kill totals in two of the three weekend matches.

"New Mexico plays unbelievable defense," said Nebraska Coach Terry Pettit. "They have beaten us in the past and we will have to be prepared for a tough match."

New Mexico employs a 6-2 system which means it has two setters and six attackers. A majority of other teams, like Nebraska, use a 5-1 system with one setter and five attackers. The new look will give the Huskers a good test.

KANSAS

Coached by former Husker All-American Karen Schonewise, the Jayhawks are coming off a 17-15 season and a fifth-place finish in the Big Eight.

Schonewise is one of only three former Husker volleyball players to have her number retired. She still holds many school blocking records, including most solo blocks in a three- and four-game match.

Meanwhile, her team has struggled early with a 3-5 record. Last weekend they lost to Michigan 3-0, Virginia Tech, 3-1 and William and Mary, 3-0 at the Virginia Tech Invitational. The Jayhawks were scheduled to play Wichita State on Tuesday before arriving in Lincoln on Friday.

PITTSBURGH

Schonewise isn't the only Nebraska connection in this tournament. Brian Begor, a former assistant coach for the Huskers, now holds a similar position for the Pittsburgh Panthers.

Last season, Pittsburgh advanced to the first round of the NCAA Tournament and finished with a 23-10 record in Coach Cindy Alvear's rookie season.

Pitt is 6-4 on the season after winning the Robert Morris Volleyfest this past weekend. Melanie Gustafson and Sara Mitchell were named to the all-tournament team.

Nebraska and Pitt have met on 12 other occasions with the Huskers dominating the rivalry, 12-0. Last season, the Huskers defeated Pitt (15-8, 15-10, 11-15, 15-9) in the Penn State Classic in University Park, Pa.

STREAKING

□ This weekend, Nebraska will try to increase its 29-match home winning streak to 31. The Huskers last loss at the Coliseum was to New Mexico in the 1992 First Tier Invitational.

□ Nebraska has had 1,000 or more fans at 78 consecutive matches, dating back to September 23, 1989.

□ Thus far, Nebraska has only lost one of 28 games in pushing its record to 9-0. The lone exception was a 11-15 loss in game three against then No.-8 Arizona State.

PLAYER NOTES

□ Kelly Aspegren, who leads the team with 15 service aces in 1994, is currently eighth on the all-time career best list with 101.

□ Allison Weston and Jen McFadden have the eighth and ninth best solo block career totals with 41 and 39, respectively.

□ Christy Johnson, who despite not playing for Nebraska in over a year because of a redshirt season, was leading the nation in assists per game after three weeks of the '94 season.

□ Johnson and Weston have been named to every all-tournament team this season. Johnson was the MVP of the Purdue Premier and Weston garnered the same honors at the First Tier Invitational.

□ Kelly Aspegren leads all Husker attackers with a .432 hitting percentage.
